Competition: (CLICK HERE)

While we host a handful of tournaments during the year to bring competition to us, it is essential to the development of our team and for each individual athlete to participate in as much competition as possible. NLWP is very much a travel club team! Competition is integral to our ability to play as a team, have individual development, and gives our athletes the opportunity to apply the training we do throughout the year in real time situations. The link above has our forecasted schedule for the Summer to help everyone prepare accordingly.
